

The Israeli Comparative Education Society(ICES)

The international workshop “International and comparative education “ held at the Hebrew University in June 2013 with the participation of highly reputed scholars from our WCCES community was the first step in renewal of the Israeli Comparative Education Society (ICES) founded in 1986 at Bar Ilan University by Prof. Yaacov Iram and admitted to the WCCES in 1989

Since its foundation members of the ICES participated regularly in the meetings of the CIES, the CESE ,the WCCES and UNESCO

It was at the 2013 workshop held at the Hebrew University, that new by-laws have been voted and that an executive committee elected. The executive committee is composed of :

President- Dr. Julia Resnik, Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Elected president -Prof. Zehavit Gross, Bar Ilan University
Secretary – Dr. Halleli Pinson, Ben Gurion University
Treasurer – Prof. Gili Drori, Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Students’ representative – Yaron Girsh, Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Founding president – Prof. Yaacov Iram , Bar Ilan University

We are working on the legal inscription of the ICES as a non-profit organization and the development of our own site. With the collaboration of Dr. Miri Yemini we are planning our first local conference “Global, international and comparative Education Research in Israel” to be held the 30 November 2014, at Tel Aviv University. This conference will be the occasion for the formal announcement of the renewal of the ICES and the beginning of a campaign for the inscription of members for the Israeli society.
